So be sure to let your hair down and celebrate!

We all had a lovely time. The set-up- was well managed from start to finish - pre-ordered drinks on the table, and the food served promptly. The music throughout the rest of the night was great. I can honestly say there are no negatives and everyone went home merry with a smile on their face ;) The email communication and payment system also worked really well and the whole process was easy and stress-free.
