

Christmas Parties at the Pier

Brochure 2025

A vibrant, high-energy photograph of a Christmas party. In the foreground, a man and a woman are celebrating. The man, wearing a light blue button-down shirt and a Santa hat, is holding a glass of champagne and looking at the woman with a joyful expression. The woman, wearing a shimmering silver sequined dress and a Santa hat, is also holding a glass of champagne and looking up at him with a wide smile. They are surrounded by other partygoers, some also wearing Santa hats, and the air is filled with falling confetti. In the background, a person dressed as Santa Claus is visible. The overall atmosphere is festive and celebratory.
