

A romantic wedding scene set in a grand, dark stone cathedral. A bride in a long white gown and a groom in a dark suit are embracing in the center. The scene is framed by a large, ornate archway supported by two tall columns. The walls and arches are draped with thousands of warm, golden lights, creating a magical atmosphere. The text 'MANSFIELD TRAQUIR' is centered at the top in a decorative frame.

TESTIMONIAL:

“Alan and I would like to take the opportunity to say what a wonderful day we had. Not a thing went wrong and the care, support and service we received from you and the staff at Mansfield Traquair - most particularly Abi the night before and on the day - was exemplary. We were able to relax completely and just enjoy the day to the fullest - which we certainly did”

YOUR WEDDING JOURNEY

1. PLANNING MEETING

Start as we mean to go on! Meet with your personal wedding designer to discuss your ideas and find out what's important to you. We can give you guidance on timings, music, wedding suppliers and much more.

2. MENU TASTING

Come and sample your wedding menu and pick your perfect wines – you'll leave wanting to take the chef home with you!

3. WEDDING REHEARSAL

Settle any last-minute nerves, meet your celebrant or bring the wedding party to practise walking down the aisle.

4. WEDDING DAY

The day has finally arrived! This will be one of the best days of your life and we love making this happen. The Wedding Team at Mansfield Traquair will seamlessly run your special day.

A bride and groom are embracing in a doorway at night. The groom is wearing a dark suit and a kilt, and the bride is wearing a white wedding dress and veil. Above them is a decorative sign with the text "MANSFIELD TRAQUAIR". The doorway is framed by large, dark wooden doors with brass hardware. A stained glass window is visible above the doorway.
